

TWO ADDITIONAL ARRESTS MADE IN HOSIERY THEFTS

Detective Russo and Constable Aita Bring Two More Philadelphians Here

CROYDON MILL CASE

Poper and Kellenbenz Are Held in Jail; Further Hearing for Jackson

Two additional arrests were made yesterday in Philadelphia, in connection with the theft of 83 dozen pairs of hosiery from the plant of the Smith & Diamond Dye Works, Croydon.

The two Philadelphians taken into custody by Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo, and Constable Charles Aita, are:

Augustus Kellenbenz, 203 E. Wishart street.

William G. Jackson, 2539 N. Mather street.

This brings the total of arrests in the case to three. Charles Poper, aged 45, of 186 W. Allegheny avenue, Philadelphia, having been arrested by Philadelphia detectives on Thursday, on information supplied by Detective Russo.

A hearing was conducted in the case last evening before Justice of the Peace James Laughlin, in the municipal building.

Poper and Kellenbenz were held in $1,000 bail each, for court. Jackson was released on bail, and will be given a further hearing here next Saturday.

A portion of the hosiery stolen from the Croydon firm was located in the original boxes in a closet in the home of Kellenbenz's brother, Henry Kellenbenz, 1903 E. Huntingdon street, Philadelphia, states Mr. Russo. The hosiery was confiscated and brought to Bristol, where Smith, a member of the Croydon firm, identified it as that purloined from his plant.

Poper was arrested in Philadelphia on Thursday, being charged with larceny, breaking and entering. Since the discovery of the theft on Sunday last, Detective Russo, and Corporal Herman of the Doylestown sub-station of the state police, had been working on the case. Information secured was turned over to Philadelphia detectives, who took Poper into custody. He was brought to Bristol on Thursday. It was stated by the authorities that the hosiery was shipped to Ohio. Poper was a former part-owner of the dye works, and was employed at the plant until two weeks ago, when he was discharged. Poper, whom it is claimed, still holds stock in the Croydon firm, is said to have admitted to the officers the theft of hosiery from plants in Philadelphia and Temple.

While Poper was being held here, Messrs. Russo and Aita went to Philadelphia yesterday, and took Jackson and Kellenbenz in tow. According to the officers, the two admitted their part in the robbery.

Detective Russo, at the hearing last evening, testified that the three arrested admitted they had stolen 35 dozen pairs of hosiery from the Smith & Diamond Dye Works.

OLD-TIME MEETING IS HELD BY ODD FELLOWS

Neshamony Lodge, No. 422, Hulmeville, Has Guests From Nine Other Lodges

BACK TO DAYS OF 1890

HULMEVILLE, Feb. 27.—An old-fashioned meeting, carrying Odd Fellows back to the days of 1890, was conducted last evening by members of Neshamony Lodge, No. 422, I. O. O. F., in the lodge room. Ten lodges were represented on this occasion, the guest lodges represented being: Mystic, No. 470, of Holmesburg; Oxford, No. 14, and Merchants Lodge, of Philadelphia; Siloam, No. 265, Newtown; Ontario, No. 177, Langhorne; Northern Star, No. 54, Richboro; Trenton Lodge, No. 321; Warrington, No. 447; and Honeybrook Lodge.

Noble grand, Arthur Martindell, presided at the lodge session, with district deputy grand master, Franklin Spitzer, serving as vice-grand.

Harry Seltzer, secretary of Neshamony Lodge, arranged the program of the evening, which was most unique.

For this old-time meeting of the '90s, the old oil lamps burned. The officers appeared in regalia of 1890, and the minutes of the meeting of October 25th of that year were acted upon. The officers serving at that time are all deceased, the list including: Noble grand, Frederick Afflerbach; v. g., John Garsed; treasurer, E. C. Praul; secretary, William Tilton; financial secretary, James P. Hellings; warden, A. J. Brown; conductor, William Dawson; chaplain, William Dixon; r. s., Allen Vansant; l. f., Alexander Crosson.

An address was made by Lynn Taylor, Cornwells Heights; "hill-billy" numbers were presented by a band from Mystic Lodge; vocal solos, using songs of 1890, were given by Elmer Vansant, Mystic Lodge; an illustrated talk by Daniel Charles, of Neshamony Lodge, took the Odd Fellows back to the time of President Johnson, and then showed progress in many lines of endeavor.

Refreshments were enjoyed.

ENTRANT LIST ADDS TO INTEREST OF ELECTION; ALL VOTES DEPOSITED BY TONIGHT WILL BE IN MONDAY'S COUNT

Results Will Appear in Tuesday's Issue of The Bristol Courier —Votes Coming In by The Score — Invite Other Entrants in Campaign

If this were election day in the election of the community's favorite baby, would you be ready?

Fortunately for the scores who have been entered in the Favorite Baby election, endorsed by the community's leading merchants and backed by The Bristol Courier, this isn't election day, but only one of the days to get in some mighty fine work for your favorite candidate.

The list of entrants announced Thursday has greatly stimulated interest in the community-wide campaign to find the child who can best claim the undisputed honor of being the real favorite. It would be unfair to try to pick the winner from a small group of entrants, and that is why so much emphasis is being laid on a big field of starters, a field that will be truly representative to the community and that will be enlarged from day to day by new entrants.

All votes which have been deposited at Election Headquarters up until tonight at 10 o'clock will be counted Monday and the results will appear in Tuesday's papers. Be sure to deposit your votes for your favorite baby today.

The honor of being chosen the community's favorite baby will be one that will last a lifetime. It will be so great in fact as to almost eclipse the cash awards which will be established for the winners and the magnificent loving cup to be awarded as an additional prize to the favorite of them all.

The votes are beginning to come in for those who have already been entered by their parents, or other relatives or by friends. Perhaps your choice has not been entered yet. If this is the case call at the Election headquarters, 218 Mill street, today, and ask the Favorite Baby Election editor to help you fill out a certificate of candidacy.

To do so will only require a few minutes, and it costs nothing. That's all there is needed to start your favorite on the road to victory, honor and reward in the Favorite Baby Election.

This newspaper and progressive merchants are seeing that every candidate has the benefit of a picture so that all will have an equal chance to find votes through the paper when the pictures are printed.

Make this YOUR election. Come in today and learn more about it. You're invited!

POWERFUL U. S. NAVY IS HELD AS KEY FACTOR FOR FUTURE OF WORLD PEACE

Admiral Standley Cites the Necessity of America Retaining The Ranking Position Among the Fleets Of the World

By Arthur N. Saverkrup
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 27.—(INS).—By maintaining its naval strength the United States can, and will, become the greatest factor for future world peace.

That is the outspoken opinion of Admiral William H. Standley, retired chief of naval operations who, now that his "tour of active duty" is officially at an end, will make his home in San Diego after devoting some months to serving as a member of the association which is promoting New York's proposed world's fair in 1939.

And while maintained naval power by this nation will be a factor for future world peace Admiral Standley, who while chief of naval operations, also served as acting secretary of Navy, believes too that only a powerful British navy can prevent Europe from destroying itself in warfare.

Naval Supremacy Necessary
"I have never advocated engaging in an armament race, but I firmly believe this country must retain its ranking position among the fleets of the world."

"England is frantically re-arming as she is beginning to realize that only with an effective threat of punishment can her hope for peace—the League of Nations—continue to function."

"As long as the British, with a strong navy can preserve the balance of power in Europe, the danger of war will be minimized."

At the same time Admiral Standley discounted criticism of the plans of the United States to build two battle-ships whose maximum speed will be

SCOUTING BANQUET IS DELIGHTFUL SUCCESS

10th Anniversary Function Is Attended by 300 From All Parts of the County

DOYLESTOWN ARMORY

DOYLESTOWN, Feb. 27.—The Bucks County National Guard Armory was beautifully decorated with the national colors, and flags of the Scouting units last evening, for the 10th anniversary banquet commemorating the founding of the local council in 1927. The one end of the large hall contained an enormous setting portraying the four-fold program of Scouting. Paintings had been made by Mrs. J. J. Willaman, Bristol, and arranged by rover crew leader Gilbert W. Carlin, Chalfont.

There was a painting for the Cub of 9 to 11, the Scout of 12 to 16, the Senior of 15 to 21, and the Rover of 17 years and older.

A reception committee greeted the nearly 300 banqueters comprising regional scout executive and Mrs. Paul H. Love; past president and Mrs. Thomas Ross; past president and Mrs. Thomas B. Stockham, and civic service chairman and Mrs. Calvin S. Boyer. The large group was ushered into the hall by executive board representatives, vice president Walter W. Pitzonka; national representative Dr. J. J. Willaman, Bristol; and educational chairman Dr. A. J. Strathie.

Behind the reception committee was a stage arranged for the Scoutmaster key and Scouter award presentations. Daffodils and carnations were arranged as table bouquets.

There was a moment of silence for Mr. Clymer and Henry Palmer, recently of Langhorne.

All of the five Scouters Training Awards were achieved by men of the Lower Bucks District. The men escorted their wives to the special stage setting where the women were presented with corsages, and the men with the honor scouters emblem. MIDNIGHT BLAZE HERE BELIEVED OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Residence on Pear Street Damaged; Kerosene Reported Found on Floors

LOSS IS HELD DOWN

Frame Barn at Pipersville is Entirely Destroyed; Save Cows, Horse

What is believed to be an incendiary fire kept Bristol Consolidated Fire Company busy during the early morning hours, when a Pear street residence was damaged to the extent of approximately $400.

A few hours later a barn near Pipersville, in the mid-Bucks County section, was entirely destroyed, as was also a chicken house and a few chickens.

The Bucks County fire marshal, William L. Stackhouse, is investigating the cause of both conflagrations.

It was at 12.45 that the residence of Vito Luppino, 907 Pear street, was discovered afire. The Luppino family was away at the time, attending a party at the home of friends on Elm street. A neighbor woman, living but a few doors from the Luppino property, smelled smoke, and seeing the flames hurried to what is generally termed the "Flatiron" building, nearby, and notified a group of men, who summoned the fire department.

The house, of two-story frame construction, was damaged in two sections of the first floor, the firemen finding it necessary to concentrate their efforts on a corner of the kitchen, and the side of the house near Pear street. The blaze was kept confined to these small areas, and it was not necessary to remove furniture from the house.

In making an investigation, Chief Clifford Hagerman states he noticed that kerosene had evidently been spilled on the floors of the kitchen, dining-room and living room, as well as on the stair-way leading to the second floor.

Loss is estimated at approximately $400, the building and furniture being insured. Two lines of hose were laid, and firemen remained on the scene for some time.

The fire near Pipersville destroyed a large frame barn on the farm of Stanley Strazinski, located near the Easton Highway. This blaze was discovered shortly after 4.30 o'clock. The farm is known as the former Harvey Cope property.

Three cows and one horse were led to safety, but the blaze spread to a chicken house which was destroyed together with a few chickens. There was little in the barn but the livestock, no grain or machinery being stored there.

Loss is placed at $3,000, the property being partly covered by insurance.

Cause of the fire is undetermined. Fire companies responding to the alarm were from Plumsteadville and Dublin. Booster lines were used, and water was pumped from a well at the rear of the structure, but the frame building proved ready tinder for the blaze, and firemen were able to do little.

WHAT NO HAIRCUT?

SALEM, Ore. — (INS) — An un-legislative request was made from the floor of the Oregon house of representatives by Hannah Martin, who asked that Representative Norblad have his hair cut. Representative Martin explained that Norblad's long hair "worries me." She suggested that he "follow the example of the other young members of the house." Norblad said he was too busy with legislative matters to worry about his hair.

BENSALEM WRESTLERS
DOWN BRISTOL, 26-6

By Louis Tomlinson

In the high school gymnasium yesterday afternoon, Bristol met Bensalem for the second time this year in wrestling—and for the second time Bristol lost, this time even worse than the last time they met. In the matches at Bensalem, the Owls won 22½ to 9½ but this time there were no draws, and Bristol didn't take a match on a fall.

Bensalem's much experienced club had an easy afternoon with the inexperienced Bristol matmen. In the first place, Mr. Maguire's team lost the valuable services of their ace grappler, Willie Dorster, of the 165 lb. class who won all four of his previous bouts on falls. This left a big hole in the Bristol squad which had to be filled by new members of the club this week, as was the 155 lb. class.

However, the matches weren't all Bensalem as the score indicates for most of the bouts were fought to the last inch by the losers who gave the winners quite a tussle and only the experience of the visitors enabled them to win.

Probably the most exciting of all the bouts of the day was the match between Hardy Johnson, colored star for the locals, and Getz, for Bensalem, in the 135 lb. class. Both boys put up a great battle with neither gaining a decision at the end of the regulation time, thus sending the match into an overtime period. Johnson got the best of Getz at the start of the first of two two-minute periods and had his man pinned with 30 seconds to go before intermission, but Getz arched and gamely held his position unable to move to be saved by the "bell" and won a great hand from the crowd, which he certainly deserved. However, Hardy went on to conquer his foe on the referee's decision to add one of the two 3-point bouts won by Bristol.

Harry Hinman also deserved a hand in defeat for his game fight which he put up against his more experienced foe in bridging his later conquer around the mats twice to get out of it by coming to a referee's position. Harry was one of the two new men this week, and did a good job in losing in spite of his handicap. The same goes for O'Boyle who tried desperately to fill Dorster's shoes in the last minute.

Summary:
95 lb. class—Sackville, Bensalem, won over Petrick on a fall in 1:11.
105 lb. class—McCollick, Bristol, won over Yekle, Bensalem, on a time advantage of 3:43.

115 lb. class—Burns, Bristol, lost to Rigby of Bensalem on a fall in 2:20.
125 lb. class—McGovern of Bensalem won over Melidio of Bristol, on a referee's decision.

135 lb. class—Johnson of Bristol also won on a referee's decision over Getz. Junghans, Bensalem, conquered Monus, Bristol, in a time advantage of 1:42, in the 145 lb. class.

155 lb. class—Hinman, Bristol, was pinned by Scarborough, Bensalem, in 2:20.
165 lb. class—O'Boyle was thrown by Borman, Bensalem, in 5:15.

Score by bouts:
Bensalem 5 0 5 3 0 3 5 5—26
Bristol 0 3 0 0 3 0 0 0—6

"BUNNIES" ARE SET BACK
BY NEW JERSEY MUTES

By Herm Corn

Despite a revamped line-up, the Bunnies could not break into the victory column against the New Jersey team for the Deaf, and again were found holding the short end of a 34-22 score when the final gun boomed. This fray was played on the local court before a packed house.

This is the second time this season the Doughertymen fell before a N. J. S. D. scoring avalanche. In the first fray the New Jersey team, with a pile-driving scoring attack in the last few minutes of play, swished a pair of field goals through the cords to nose out the Cardinal and Grey quintet by the narrow margin of 30-27.

Before meeting the visitors in this tilt, Coach Dougherty's courtmen had chalked up the excellent record of eight straight wins against no defeats. Since that first defeat they went ahead and checked up six more wins in the winning side with no defeats. Thus the Bunnies end their scheduled season which has been the most successful season in very many years. Their final tabulation stands: 14 victories against 2 black marks for an average of 87.5.

Flashing a powerful offensive attack in the first few minutes of play the locals on a foul by Carnvale and a field goal by Zefferi, stepped into the lead. Furgione, Deaf School, retaliated by converting a gift toss, and Charles Hughes and Punky Zefferi countered with a double-decker apiece for the Red and Grey, putting the hares on top for the only time in the game by a 7-1 advantage.

At this point the boys from the state capital hit their stride, and there was no stopping them. Their excellent passing, clever blocking, and sensational shooting allowed them to forge continually ahead, and while Bristol obtained only three foul goals, they polled up seven more field goals to lead at halftime—15 to 10.

In the third quarter the Bunnies could not stop the visitors although the margin between them was only increased by two points. No bearer of the Red and Grey could get near the basket for a set shot. Every field goal made was dropped from back of the foul line, and it was only due to the fight displayed by the homesters that they were in the running at all. Score at the end of period 17-24 with N. J. S. D. on top.

The final canto had little in store for the Cardinal team. Although they fought desperately, taking shots from all positions of the court, the Mutes, lead by Frankie Foti, gathered ten points to Bristol's five. Final score: Bristol, 22; N. J. S. D., 34.

Phil Carnvale and Charlie Hughes lead the Bunnies in the scoring column with two double-deckers and a charity throw for a total of five points, Zefferi being third with four points, while Huffnell, stellar defense guard for the Red and Grey, followed close on his heels with three. Jessie VanZant held down very capably the other guard position vacated by Tom Proby, who recently became ineligible for A. A. U. competition.

For the visitors, Al Gibo, lanky center, who was their key man on almost every scoring play, and Frankie Foti pivot man for the Purple and Gold scored four field goals and two foul tosses each for 10 points. Following right on their heels was Charlie Mikos with nine counters, three two-pointers and three fouls.

ROCKAWAY, Ore.—(INS)—A pair of timber fallers saved the life of a yearling doe when the deer was chased by dogs. The exhausted animal faced either death from the dogs or a chance on the two timber fallers, and she chose the latter course—dropping wearily to the ground a short distance from them. The men had to chase the dogs away three times before the deer rested sufficiently to bound away into the woods.

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Gone but not forgotten was the National Aviation Show, the first held in seven years. Just before the show closed it was announced that it would be an annual event hereafter. G. A. Parsons, managing director of the show this year, will continue in that capacity for future shows.

"There is going to be a lot of fun when this happens," he says. "Hawaii at that time can expect another volcanic eruption of either Mauna Loa or Kilauea."

The teacher develops his forecasts without the aid of instruments or scientific data available to others making similar studies. Yet his score sheet shows a high percentage of accuracy.

Observations of other laymen and scientists here support, in some measure, the unqualified prediction of Brother Othmar.

E. K. Martin, U. S. weather observer stationed within 30 miles of the national park, has also predicted a volcanic eruption at Kilauea, basing his assertion on stormy conditions native Hawaiians call "volcanic weather."

Dr. T. A. Jaggar, famed volcanologist who has spent the past quarter of a century studying volcanoes in this island section of America by actually living on their brink is not so certain. Brother Othmar and Martin are entirely accurate in their early eruption forecasts but has placed a constant watch on the action of Kauai "just in case."

Hawaii, strangely enough to those not familiar with volcanic activity in the Islands, hopes that the predictions of lava outbursts next month are accurate. Unlike volcanoes in other parts of the world, those in Hawaii are termed "safe," inasmuch as they rarely do material damage and are not dangerous to human life.

New California Comet Flares

By BERNIE

no. 4 RANK

Bobby RIGGS

"NEWEST BOY WONDER OF THE TENNIS WORLD."
"IT WILL DO IT! I CAN THINK OF A MORE PHENOMENAL CLIMB TO THE TOP OF THE RANKING PLAYER!"

"UNKNOWN NATIONALLY A YEAR AGO—NOW IN THE DAVIS CUP SPOTLIGHTS."

"I PICKED HIM UP AS THE BABY OF THE U.S. CUP TEAM!"

Young Robert L. Riggs was widely unknown throughout the nation at the start of 1936, yet the current tennis rankings list him as our fourth best player on the national net list.

If this isn't a spectacular rise from out of nowhere to the heights of stardom, it will do till I can think of a more phenomenal climb to the top. Riggs, like the top-ranking Donald Budge, is from California, that cradle of remarkable racketeers.

He seems to be a cinch to annex a Davis Cup berth this year, even if he doesn't see much action in the matches. The consensus is that America should build for the future by letting youngsters such as Riggs, Hunt and Parker get their baptism in Davis Cup wars as soon as possible.

Of this trio, Young Bobby is considered the most experts to be the best prospect, even though Parker was given a dubious No. 2 ranking this year. Wimbledon net moguls, intrigued by the exhilarating play of Riggs in 1936, are very anxious for Bobby to make his debut in British courts, which seems certain to occur if the U. S. team gets past Australia in the American Zone finals.
